An untimely tragedy

Trip to Cabo San Lucas takes a tragic turn

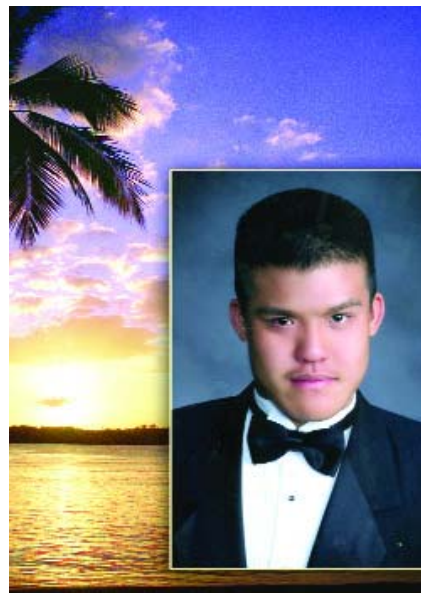

By Bill Highlander
Editor

"Mom, I'm not feeling well."

A comment often heard by mothers from their children, but on July 1, the complaint turned deadly.

Brian Hom, 11 and his family had just arrived at Royal Club Solaris resort in Cabo San Lucas, checked into their room and gone to the buffet for dinner. The vacation was to celebrate Brian's recent birthday and his graduation from Evergreen Valley High School. Everyone was looking forward to having fun.

After dinner, the family was strolling through the hotel lobby and Brian said his throat was sore. Within minutes, the 18-year-old collapsed Read more...
