

- Home
 - About Us
 - Advertise With Us
 - Contact Us
 - Privacy Policy
 - Sitemap
-
-

- Family Vacation
- Safe Travel
- Space Travel
- Travel Preparation
- Travel Requirements
- Traveller's Perks
- Vacation Guide

Canby girl, 4, dies on family vacation to Mexico

January 22, 2016 | By HorizonInnadmin | Reply More

Marissa Greer killed by sneaker wave

The Associated Press Published: Jan 22, 2016, 4:45 am

The Greer family. (GoFundMe)

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) – The family of a northwestern Oregon lady says a child has died after being swept adult by a call while on vacation in Mexico.

The Oregonian reports that Katie Greer says she and her 4-year-old daughter Marissa had been walking on a beach in Cabo San Lucas when a call pulled them and dual others from a shore. She says a small lady “slipped out of my hand.”

The organisation was discovered from a waves, Greer says, though Marissa was after conspicuous upheld during a hospital.

Greer says her daughter was in preschool and desired to play with her 2-year-old brother, Trenton.

The family returned home from their outing to Canby Tuesday. A GoFundMe has been set adult for a family.