Destiny Moore, 32, of Beaumont, was staying in a rented house on Isla Mujeres — an island located off of Cancun's coast — when she fell.

She was rushed to the hospital Thursday but was pronounced dead hours later.

U.S. Embassy officials confirmed Moore's death to Beaumont-based TV station KFDM.

"We offer our sincerest condolences to her family and loved ones on their loss," the embassy said in a statement.

Moore worked at the Texas Bullion Exchange, and is survived by a son.
