

Home / News / Local News

Local couple killed in dune buggy crash in Mexico

Jim Melillo, Susan Borges killed while on Royal Caribbean cruise in Cozumel

UPDATED 3:32 PM EST Nov 19, 2012

Text Size: A A A

Advertising

VIEW LARGE »

COZUMEL, Mexico — An Orange County couple was killed in a dune buggy crash in Mexico on Saturday.

RELATED

- George Zimmerman wants to move about...
- Father of teen in loud music slaying...
- Body found inside car in Orange County
- Officials arrest classmate in teen's...
- Software tycoon John McAfee arrested

Friends of Jim Melillo and Susan Borges told WESH 2 the dune buggy the couple was riding in crashed in Cozumel.

A Mexican newspaper said the buggy was driven by another Central Florida resident, Wagner Ferreira.

The three were traveling with friends on the Royal Caribbean Cruise "Liberty of the Seas."

Police questioned Wagner about the accident after he was treated at the hospital.

Friends of the couple told WESH 2 that Royal Caribbean flew family members down to Cozumel to bring their loved ones home.

NEXT STORY
Nurse involved in Kate hoax call found dead

MOST POPULAR

SLIDESHOWS | STORIES | VIDEOS

1. List: Florida's 25 most exclusive zip codes

2. Can you help track down Florida's 59 most wanted?
3. Florida Mug Shots: Week in Review
4. 45 things we don't do anymore
5. World's 25 most powerful people
6. Disney's New Fantasyland: Preview party

FACEBOOK ACTIVITY

Advertising