CHARLOTTE, NC (WBTV) - The mother of a North Carolina man who was murdered in Mexico is desperate to find answers.

Shane Pennington of Hendersonville was found stabbed to death on a beach in Tijuana.

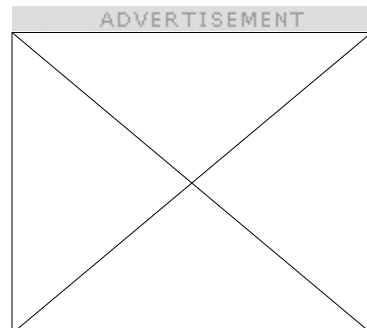

The 19-year-old moved to California to join the army.

He was delivering meat for a company in Anaheim when he disappeared.

"He was going to live life to the fullest and no matter where he went, he made a friend," said Elizabeth Taylor, Pennington's mother.

The motive behind Pennington's murder remains a mystery.

The U.S. government has been warning Americans to avoid traveling to Tijuana because of increased drug violence.
